Introduction

In 1984, the Department of Employment Services published the first "Directory of the Chief Executive Officers of the 200 Major Employers in the District of Columbia." The directory was updated in 1986, 1989, 1992, 1994 and 1996. Since 1997, the directory has been published yearly. This 2002 release includes the names of chief executive officers, human resources directors, and telephone numbers for major private sector firms operating in the District of Columbia. The directory also contains a ranking of the 200 firms according to the size of their work force in the District. The employment levels used for selecting and ranking employers are those reported to the District's Unemployment Compensation Program, as of September 2002.

The directory is a broad representation of District-based industries, including social services, department stores, restaurants, hotels, educational institutions, construction firms, financial institutions and membership organizations. The industry classifications utilized in the list of employers and chief executives are from the Standard Industrial Classification Manual, 1987.

The directory represents a snapshot of the District of Columbia's job market, including those firms demonstrating a potential for public and private economic development, as well as employment and training partnerships. We believe that this publication will serve as a tool for planners and administrators in facilitating contact with the District's employer community.

With the 2002 edition, we added web addresses for those employers who have web locations. In some instances, we have listed the corporate web site address from which the local employer can be accessed.

Overview

The individual firms in the directory employ from 250 to more than 6,400 persons. Although the directory contains approximately one percent of all private sector firms in the District, these firms employ over 151,200 individuals. Firm-by-firm employment among the Top 200 declines rapidly as one moves down the list. For example, if the 200 firms are divided into quarters, average employment of the first 50 firms would be 1,723 employees; for the second fifty, 581 employees; for the third fifty, 400 employees; and the fourth fifty, 319 employees.

Within the top 200 firms, hospitals are the largest group with 23,400 workers, or 16 percent of the 151,200 workers. Universities and colleges are second with approximately 22,400, or 15 percent of the total; followed by law firms with 12,500; hotels with 7,500; restaurants with 5,300; and banks with 1,800 workers.

Ranking by Size of Workforce

Education and healthcare top the list. Universities and hospitals are nine of the 10 largest private sector employers and account for 70 percent of the jobs in the Top 20.

Annotations

1. Bell Atlantic changed it's name to Verizon.
2. Crestar Bank changed it's name to SunTrust Bank of Georgia.
3. Vador Ventures changed it's name to Total Quality.
4. Waterhouse and Coopers wishes its name to appear as "PricewaterhouseCoopers."
5. D.C. Housing Authority and D.C. Water and Sewer Authority were separated from the District of Columbia government and are not counted as public agencies.
6. There are two Fortune 500 corporations "headquartered" in the nation's capital as of April 2002 which also appear on DOES' Top 200 Employer Listing. The rankings by venue are in this order:
 - Fannie Mae
 - Marriott International, Inc.Of the 200 firms, 130 are in the northwest quadrant of the city. These firms are heavily concentrated in the downtown and midtown areas. There are 19 firms in the northeast quadrant, two firms in the southwest quadrant and five firms in the southeast quadrant. The home office is in Maryland and Virginia for 21 and 22 firms, respectively. One firm's home office is in Texas.
7. Absences of personnel contacts for listed employers are the result of current vacancies or lack of a central personnel office within the organization.

Newcomers to the Top 200*

Twenty-seven companies joined in 2003. Business sectors contributing new members to this year's tally include government contracting, staffing services, restaurants, not-for-profits, legal services, education and healthcare.
